Keynote Speaker
Judy Krause

Dr. Judy Krause is a faculty member in the La Fetra College of Education's Child Development program at the University of La Verne, and serves as Regional Academic Coordinator for the Inland Empire and High Desert Regions. Judy has worked with young children and their families for over 35 years. She regularly spends time with young children at the university's professional development schools and Implements a Mommy and Me program for a local school district.

Judy is the course specialist for the university's undergraduate Early Childhood Literacy course as well as La Verne's Transitional Kindergarten Certificate program's TK Literacy course. Dr. Krause has enjoyed presenting hundreds of hands-on interactive literacy workshops at the state and local level.

As a social constructivist, Judy believes children (and adults) learn through hands on experiences.

Her workshops and keynote presentations are highly interactive, hands-on and fun!
